

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
PENNSYLVANIA PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION
P.O. BOX 3265, HARRISBURG, PA 17105-3265

Posted on December 12, 2003

Development of an Efficient Loop Migration Process
Docket No. M-00031754

Below is a listing of the parties in the Commission's proceeding on Development of an Efficient Loop Migration Process, at Docket No. M-00031754. Comments and responses¹ for non-proprietary filings, as well as a service list, can be accessed on the Commission's website through the following link: Parties Response

Party	Signed Protective Order
1) ARC Network Inc., d/b/a Infohighway Communications, Corp.	Yes
2) AT&T Communications of Pennsylvania, LLC	No
3) ATX Licensing, Inc.	No
4) Broadview Networks, Inc.	Yes
5) Bullseye Telecom Inc.	Yes
6) Cavalier Telephone Mid-Atlantic	Yes
7) Covad Communications	No
8) Full Service Network	Yes
9) McGraw Communications, Inc.	Yes
10) MCI	Yes
11) Metropolitan Telecommunications Corporation of PA	Yes
12) Office of Consumer Advocate	Yes
13) Office of Small Business Advocate	Yes
14) Office of Trial Staff	Yes
15) Penn Telecom, Inc. (Proprietary)	Yes
16) REMI Communications	Yes
17) Talk America, Inc.	Yes
18) Verizon Pennsylvania Inc. (Proprietary portions)	Yes

Questions concerning this proceeding may be directed to Mohan Samuel, Bureau of Fixed Utility Service, 717-783-0697.

¹ The following companies filed a combined responses:

- Broadview Networks, Inc., Bullseye Telecom Inc., ARC Network Inc., d/b/a/ Infohighway Communications, Corp., McGraw Communications, Inc., Metropolitan Telecommunications Corporation of PA, and Talk America, Inc., and
- Full Service Network and REMI Communications